

Dr Mark Moyad

Mark Moyad, MD, MPH
Jenkins/ Pokempner Director of Preventative and Complimentary Medicine
University of Michigan Medical School

Dr Mark Moyad has volunteered written articles for the PAACT newsletter for almost 2 decades. He is a highly-regarded and well-known author, speaker and physician-advocate within the prostate cancer community and the medical community. You will find that his focus is primarily lifestyle, reminding us that “a heart-healthy lifestyle is also a prostate-healthy lifestyle.”Ref

Although this section does not have links to all of his 60+ articles, you will find his most recent writings here. If you desire access to older articles you can request them by emailing PAACT at paact@paactusa.org or look through our newsletter section here.

Articles

What the Heck Has Been Going on in My World?

- Winter 2015, Article 71
- Fall 2015, Article 70
- Summer 2015, Article 69
- Spring 2015, Article 68